The image shows a mobile application interface on a smartphone. At the top, there is a purple status bar with the time 9:36, a settings gear icon, and signal/battery indicators. Below this is a white header bar with the text "Student Name". Under the header, the word "Adventure" is entered in a text field with a red underline. Below this, the text "Marks" is displayed, followed by the number "100" in a text field with a red underline. At the bottom of the screen, there is a keyboard with a search bar containing "Adventure", "Adventures", and "Adventurer". The keyboard is a standard QWERTY layout with a blue arrow key. The phone's home indicator bar is visible at the very bottom.
